

JFC Calf Hutches

£POA

Calf hutches are a healthy housing alternative for calves in the first 8-10 weeks of life. Independent trials have shown that outdoor ventilated hutches significantly reduce calf mortality and cross infections including scour and pneumonia. Preventing such conditions in the first weeks of life is essential for calves to become healthy adult stock capable of reaching their full productivity potential.

Calf hutches also act as isolation units when buying new calves or administering treatment to

Product Details

Category/Type	Livestock Equipment
Make	JFC
Model	Calf Hutches
Year	-
Hours	NEW

Fleet Lane, Bredon, Tewkesbury, Gloucester, GL20 7EF

Tel: +44 (0)1684 772912

www.panddengineering.com info@panddeng.co.uk